³Estimates for all DOD vaccine development and vaccination efforts.

⁴Settlements from the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program (NVICP) for injury prior to 1988 are from appropriations; those for injury after 1988 are from a vaccine surcharge.

Although the Federal contribution to vaccine development and immunization is critical, other investments, for example by States and commercial vaccine companies, are also necessary. Although these contributions are not discussed in detail in this initial plan, they will be covered in future plans to the extent that the appropriate information is available.
